

1.1 STATUTES OF THE ASIA MINIGOLF SPORT FEDERATION

Part 1: GENERAL REGULATIONS

Art. 1: Name and form

- 1.1 The Asia Minigolf Sport Federation (AMF), herein after referred to also as the Federation, is the international umbrella organisation of all minigolf players in Asia. It is a non-profit organisation.
- 1.2 The AMF is a continental federation of the World Minigolf Sport Federation (WMF).
- 1.3 Members of the AMF are national minigolf associations or, in the case of countries where a national association does not yet exist, a club or sports institution.
- 1.4 The AMF acknowledges the statutes, rules and regulations of the World Minigolf Sport Federation (WMF).

Art. 2: Aims of the AMF

- 2.1 To promote minigolf in Asian countries and to take whatever measures are necessary to this end.
- 2.2 To represent the interests of its members in the Asian region with regard to the authorities, other sport associations, the mass media and the public, in as far as this is not the responsibility of the members or WMF.
- 2.3 To promote sporting contacts between all minigolf players and to organise all Asian Championships.
- 2.4 To combat doping by all available means; to acknowledge and incorporate within its organization the WADA-Code and its provisions in collaboration with WMF. The AMF hereby fights for equality of opportunity in competitions, for the image of the sport in the publicity and for the protection of the health of all athletes.

Art. 3: Governing Law, Seat, Headquarter and Duration

- 3.1 The AMF is governed by the laws of Thailand. The statutory seat of the AMF is in Chiang Mai, Thailand.
- 3.2 The headquarters of the AMF is at the location where the next Asian Minigolf Championships are played.
- 3.3 The duration of the AMF is unlimited.

Art. 4: Principles

- 4.1 The AMF stands for freedom in sport, its voluntary nature, and the community of sport.

- 4.2 The AMF makes no distinction of race or religion and is politically neutral.
- 4.3 The AMF accepts the IOC Charter as drafted in its valid version.
- 4.4 The aims of the AMF are purely non-profit-making.
- 4.5 The bodies and functionaries of the AMF work on an honorary basis. Travel costs and expenses are reimbursed strictly in accordance with the relevant regulations covering expenses.

Art. 5: General provisions

- 5.1 Both genders should be represented in committees of the AMF.
- 5.2 Individuals below the age of 18 (eighteen) may not be elected in any committee.
- 5.3 The name of the AMF, the logos, trademarks, flags, motto, anthem and other brands used by the AMF should be protected. The active members may only use the logos, trademarks, flags, motto, anthem and other brands within the framework of their non-profit-making activities, provided such use contributes to the development of minigolf sport and does not detract from its dignity, and provided the active member concerned has obtained the prior approval of the Executive Committee based on a single decision or a regulation issued by the Executive Committee.

Part 2: MEMBERSHIP

Art. 6: Membership

There are the following kinds of members:

- 6.1 Active members
(Nations / Clubs / Sports Institutions)
- 6.2 Honorary members

Art. 7: Admission regulations for active members

- 7.1 Admission and termination of the membership with the AMF is dependent to the membership with the WMF. Membership with AMF automatically starts with the membership granted by the WMF and the assignment of the active member to the AMF.
- 7.2 By joining the AMF, active members accept the Federation's Statutes, rules and regulations. Active members are obliged to make sure that these precepts are also respected by its member clubs/sports institutions and players.
- 7.3 The active members are bound by the rules of the Delegates Conference in respect of fees, charges and taxes; and have to pay these by May 31st of each year.

Newly admitted active members of the AMF do not have to pay membership fees for the year of their admission and the year thereafter.

- 7.4 Newly admitted active members have all rights resulting from the Statutes immediately after their admission is ratified by the Delegates Conference of the WMF.

Art. 8: Right of appeal of active members

An appeal against an imposed sanction can be submitted to the Legal Committee within 60 (sixty) days of the announcement.

Art. 9: Members' rights

Members have the right:

- 9.1 to participate in international championships organised by the AMF, provided that they meet with the obligations towards the AMF;
- 9.2 to receive in advance the agenda of the Delegates Conference, to be called to the meeting within the prescribed time, to take part in the meeting and to exercise their right to vote;
- 9.3 to be informed of the state of the AMF;
- 9.4 to participate in voting and in elections;
- 9.5 to draw up proposals regarding the agenda of the Delegates Conference;
- 9.6 to nominate candidates to the committees of the AMF;
- 9.7 to exercise any other right arising from the Statutes, rules, regulations and decisions of the AMF.

Art. 10: Termination of active membership

- 10.1 The membership of an active member expires with resignation, exclusion or disbanding of the national association, or the club/sports institution. A loss of the membership with the WMF automatically leads to a loss of the membership with the AMF.
- 10.2 The resignation of an active member must have been decided by its highest body. The minutes recording such decision must be sent by registered letter to the AMF Office within 3 (three) months. Membership fees must be paid until the end of the business year in which the resignation is received.
- 10.3 If an active member violates the interests of the Federation, damages its reputation, either internally or externally, or disregards or violates the Statutes, rules or regulations, the AMF Executive Committee may take sanctions against the active member concerned. The Delegates Conference takes the final decision on an expulsion and on a recommendation towards the WMF for an expulsion from the WMF membership.

Art. 11: Honorary members

- 11.1 On the suggestion of the Executive Committee, or on application of an active member, the Delegates Conference can appoint as honorary members individuals who have made a great personal contribution to the sport of minigolf.
- 11.2 Honorary members have no voting rights. They pay no fees. Otherwise they are treated as equal to active members.

Part 3: ORGANISATION1. THE DELEGATES CONFERENCE*Art. 12: Powers and duties

- 12.1 The Delegates Conference is the highest decision-making authority in the AMF. It takes decisions on all important questions, except in cases where such right is reserved for the members or WMF. The Delegates Conference lays down the guidelines for the running of the Federation.
- 12.2 The Delegates Conference is authorised, amongst other things, to carry out the following functions:
- 12.2.1 Election of members of the Executive Committee
 - 12.2.2 Election of members of the Technical Committee, Youth Committee, Legal Committee and Auditors
 - 12.2.3 Approval of the annual accounts and budget estimates
 - 12.2.4 Relieving Executive Committee members of their duties
 - 12.2.5 Setting of membership fees and tournament fees
 - 12.2.6 Passing of a resolution on the appointment or dissolution of special committees
 - 12.2.7 Passing of a resolution on motions put forward by the Executive Committee, the Technical Committee, other committees or their members, or the Auditors, where applicable
 - 12.2.8 Considering and approving changes in Statutes and rules
 - 12.2.9 Determining organizers/venues of international competitions in the Asian region as far as this task is not the responsibility of WMF or the other continental federations of WMF. In cases where the championships have not been awarded at least 4 (four) years before the event, the right to decide the venue transfers to the Executive Committee.
 - 12.2.10 Expulsion of members
 - 12.2.11 Dissolution of the Federation

Art. 13: Structure and voting rights

- 13.1 The Delegates Conference consists of:
 - 13.1.1 The members of the Executive Committee (with voting rights).
 - 13.1.2 The delegates of the active members (with voting rights).
 - 13.1.3 Honorary members (without voting rights).
- 13.2 General voting rights:
 - 13.2.1 Each Executive Committee member has one personal vote, which is not transferable.
 - 13.2.2 Active members with up to and including 100 active players have 2 (two) votes, active members with more than 100 active players and up to and including 500 active players have 3 (three) votes, active members with more than 500 active players have 4 (four) votes. An active member's right to vote is not transferable. The number of active players is based on the membership statistics report submitted by each active member for the current year.
 - 13.2.3 Delegates cannot make use of a personal right to vote.
 - 13.2.4 A delegate can make use of all votes of the active member.
- 13.3 Voting rights at elections:
 - 13.3.1 At a Delegates Conference which has elections on the agenda the pre-election active members and current Executive Committee members are eligible to vote.
 - 13.3.2 Only the active members are eligible to vote on elections.
 - 13.3.3 After new elections active members and the newly elected members of the Executive Committee are eligible to vote.
- 13.4 Proof of voting rights:

The right to vote of the delegates must be confirmed in writing by the national association or the club/the sports institution of the active member concerned.

Art. 14: Quorum and passing of resolutions

- 14.1 A Delegates Conference which has been convened in accordance with the Statutes always has a quorum.
- 14.2 Resolutions passed by the Delegates Conference are affected by simple majority, with the exception of such instances as are listed in the Statutes.
- 14.3 A tied vote will result in rejection.
- 14.4 Record of proceedings
 - 14.4.1 Minutes must be taken of the resolutions passed at the Delegates Conference, and signed by both the Executive Committee member responsible for the minutes and by the person taking the minutes. The minutes must be distributed to all members not later than 60 (sixty) days after the conference.
 - 14.4.2 The minutes are regarded as approved, if after 60 (sixty) days of distribution no written objections have been raised. Objections raised will be discussed at the next meeting. Until then the minutes are considered approved only in the points where no objections were raised.

- 14.5 In the event of questions and matters arising which have to be cleared up without delay, a postal vote is possible. This carries the same force as a resolution passed by the Delegates Conference. This type of voting can also be used in the other bodies of the AMF. Votes not received on time will be interpreted as endorsement.

Art. 15: Elections

- 15.1 Save for any indication to the contrary in these Statutes, elections are held on the basis of the simple majority.
- 15.2 Election of the members of the Executive Committee is held on the basis of the absolute majority (more than 50%) of the votes validly cast. In the event the absolute majority is not reached in the first round, a second round will be organised, under the rule of the relative majority (the highest number of votes). In the event of a tie, a third round shall take place after the elimination of the candidate who has obtained the least number of votes in the second round; this procedure shall continue until only one candidate remains. In case of persisting equality between candidates, they shall be separated by drawing lots.
- 15.3 Illegible, void, blank or improper votes, and abstentions shall not be included in the count of validly cast votes.
- 15.4 Voting for elections shall always be carried out by secret ballot whenever there is more than 1 (one) candidate for the office up for election. Voting machines may be used provided they allow secrecy in voting.
- 15.5 In the event there is only one candidate for the position being filled, the election will be carried out by acclamation, unless an election by secret ballot is requested by at least 2 (two) active members having voting rights.
- 15.6 Voting by proxy or letter is not allowed.
- 15.7 Transfer of voting rights to other delegates or AMF committee members is not allowed.

Art. 16: President and committee members in office

- 16.1 During the election of the President, the out-going President shall, if seeking re-election, surrender the chair to a "chairman pro-tempore", elected by the Delegates Conference, who will then conduct the election.
- 16.2 Subject to a contrary decision by the Delegates Conference the re-elected or newly elected President continues to chair the Delegates Conference.
- 16.3 The newly elected members of the Executive Committee take office immediately after the election.

Art. 17: Ordinary and Extraordinary Delegates Conference

- 17.1 Ordinary Delegates Conferences are held every 2 (two) years.
- 17.2 The Executive Committee or at least one fifth of the active members can arrange or call for an Extraordinary Delegates Conference to be convened, as long as there are appropriate and urgent reasons for this.

Art. 18: The act of convening

- 18.1 In order for an Ordinary Delegates Conference to be convened, all members must be informed in writing and the agenda made known at least 90 (ninety) days before the date of the conference. The conference is convened by the Executive Committee member responsible for this. The exact venue and time of the conference can be announced at a later date.
- 18.2 An Extraordinary Delegates Conference can be convened at as little as 30 (thirty) days-notice.

Art. 19: Motions

- 19.1 Motions can be proposed for the Delegates Conference by the following:
- 19.1.1 The active members
 - 19.1.2 The Executive Committee
 - 19.1.3 The Technical Committee
 - 19.1.4 The Legal Committee
 - 19.1.5 The Special Committees
 - 19.1.6 The honorary members
 - 19.1.7 The Auditors
- 19.2 Motions must be submitted with an explanation to the AMF-Office not later than 60 (sixty) days before the Delegates Conference is to be held. A compilation of the motions is distributed by the Secretary General to all members at least 30 (thirty) days before the conference. Motions submitted after the deadline are subject to priority and will only be placed on the agenda if a 2/3 (two-thirds) majority of those present agree. These deadlines do not apply to motions proposed by the Executive Committee and the Technical Committee.
- 19.3 In the event of an Extraordinary Delegates Conference being convened, the deadline for putting forward motions is reduced to 14 (fourteen) days before the conference.

2. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Art. 20: Structure

8. THE AUDITORS

Art. 38: Structure, length of office and elections

- 38.1 The Delegates Conference designates 2 (two) active members to be in charge of auditing for a period 2 (two) years.
- 38.2 If possible, both designated active members should announce immediately the representative who is instructed to carry out the actual auditing.

- 38.3 In addition, the Delegates Conference may appoint an external qualified professional auditor, totally independent from the AMF, to carry out the audit.

Art. 39: Duties

- 39.1 The auditors must check the accounts and expenditure of the AMF, and make a yearly report on the financial situation to be presented to the Delegates Conference by way of the Executive Committee.
- 39.2 They can carry out an audit at any time, provided they inform both the Finance Manager and the President of the AMF in writing at least 14 (fourteen) days in advance.
- 39.3 A written audit is possible at any time but must however be carried out at the end of the calendar year.
- 39.4 The duty of an external qualified professional auditor is limited to the review of the financial accounts, unless the Delegates Conference assigns other duties.

Part 4: FINANCE

Art. 40: Signatory rights

- 40.1 The AMF Financial Manager is responsible for money and bank accounts with sole signature rights.
- 40.2 For emergency cases the AMF President should have additional sole signatory rights.

Art. 41: Revenue

The AMF gets the funds necessary for the fulfilment of its duties by the following means among others:

- 41.1 Membership fees
- 41.2 Takings/hosting fees from events
- 41.3 From third parties
- 41.4 Donations and other fees
- 41.5 Fundraising
- 41.6 A record of contributions, to be updated by the respective Delegates Conference, is a component of the AMF finance-order.

Art. 42: Membership and other fees, budget

- 42.1 The setting of membership fees and AMF tournament fees is passed by resolution at the Delegates Conference. Active members are liable to payment of both membership and other fees; exception Art. 7.3.
- If an active member has a debt (membership fees or other dues) owing to the AMF for more than 12 (twelve) months, it foregoes its rights as a member.

42.2 With the reservation of the rights of WMF, the AMF has the right to make agreements with broadcasting companies regarding the coverage of all AMF tournaments and may distribute the fees arising from such agreements. The same applies to all other media coverage.

The task of negotiating with the media rests with the Executive Committee, unless delegated to the national minigolf association organising the event.

Active members organising international Championships and tournaments by the order of the AMF are allowed to seek their own commercial sponsorship for these events. However, existing sponsorship agreements made by the AMF and WMF must be respected.

42.3 The AMF must decide a budget showing a loss exceeding 20% of the annual membership fee with a 2/3 (two-thirds) majority of the votes present in the Delegates Conference. Losses effectively incurred exceeding 20% of the annual membership fee must be recovered within 3 (three) years by a profit.

Art. 43: Liability

43.1 If a committee member is taken up as acting part by a contracting party of the AMF, he can require by the AMF exemption respectively refunding of all costs, which are connected to this demand, provided that the business has been operated in "official capacity" as committee member in execution of his committee tasks with the usual care.

43.2 The Federation is liable to fulfil its financial commitments from its assets. An active member is also liable, if by intent or through gross negligence, that member is responsible for weakening the financial situation of the AMF.

Art. 44: Financial year

The financial year of the AMF shall run from the 1st January to the 31st of December annually.

Part 5: FINAL CLAUSES

Art. 45: Changes in Statutes

Changes in the Statutes can only be passed by resolutions of the Delegates Conference. A two-thirds majority of the votes of those participants registered in the participants list is required.

Art. 46: Rules and regulations

46.1 The changing and repealing of rules is the responsibility of the Delegates Conference. Such decisions may be taken with a simple majority.

- 46.2 The Executive Committee alone is responsible for the making, changing and repealing of regulations, and it can also give directions and make recommendations.

Art. 47: Dissolution of the Federation

- 47.1 The AMF can be dissolved:
- 47.1.1 Pursuant to a merger with another sport association or associations; or
 - 47.1.2 by decision and subsequent liquidation.
- 47.2 The dissolution of the Federation can only be passed by resolution in a specially convened Extraordinary Delegates Conference. A three-quarters majority of the votes of those participants registered in the participants list is required.
